

The Mechanism Club Mission Statement:

Below are three organic transformations. Think about what the mechanism for these might be and what kind of experiments would be useful in determining the mechanism. We will discuss the proposed mechanisms and some evidence in the literature. Please don't search the literature extensively, just come up with your own thoughts. The objective is discussion, not "correctness."

